Message from the Assistant Head

While we miss our thriving on-campus community, we continue to be inspired and encouraged by the exciting opportunities for student support, learning, and connection that are possible using our online platforms.

We are pleased to introduce an online platform for our valued educational partners. Agents can now access an exclusive online portal of brochures, photos, videos, and other school resources. Please email admissions@fieldstonekcschool.org to obtain login information. We look forward to continuing to showcase school successes both on that portal and in our newsletters.

Our new newsletter format will allow us to keep an archive of our publications that can easily be revisited and shared. Feedback on these publications is always welcome as we aim to provide you with valuable and engaging insights each month.

Programme Spotlight: FKCS Orientation

Spring is always an exciting season at FKCS as we start to make plans for our Summer Orientation Programme (pictured at right).

This year's programme may be a bit different than that in years past, as we put student safety first; nevertheless, our objectives are consistent and we are confident that we will provide a welcoming and inspiring experience for our students.

Student All-Stars: Grade Twelve English Scholars

Teachers were extremely impressed by students' creative interpretations of classic characters and the level of analysis and engagement our students demonstrated.
